EUNITED TOUR 2009

Skaters to hit key European skate spots in a two week tour

■ Haslam picks his spots and sets his sights on Europe

■ Decenzo, fresh off 2nd place ISF/Dew Cup + best trick, looks forward to first EU trip

GLOBE'S EUNITED SKATE TOUR TO FEATURE CHRIS HASLAM, RODNEY MULLEN, RYAN DECENZO, EERO ANTTILA AND PHILIPP SCHUSTER

August 21st 2009 – For Immediate Release

Globe International has announced that its star European riders will be hooking up with its marquee International Pro skaters for a skate tour through London, Lyon, Madrid and Berlin beginning October 1st, and running for two weeks. The tour will feature a variety of in-store visits, Skatepark and street spot sessions, filming for Globe's UNITED BY FATE episodic film series and 'meet and greets' for local skaters in these cities.

Globe's Chris Haslam, who was featured in Globe's 2nd UNITED BY FATE episode, which has been viewed millions of times, will be showcasing his unique and creative style of skateboarding in the cities he helped hand pick for this tour. Check his UBF 2 part at www.unitedbyfate.tv.

Rodney Mullen will make a long anticipated visit to Europe for this tour to meet with old friends and visit key shops in some of his favorite cities. Mullen, who has invented more tricks than any other skateboarder in history and is credited with 39 of the modern tricks being done today, has become quite a YouTube.com phenomenon, with video views that outpace even Europe's most popular sports heroes. With over 11 million views of just one of his videos, he is one of the most watched sports personalities today. You can view The Best of Rodney Mullen here.

Rising Canadian star, Ryan Decenzo, who is the featured rider in the latest installment of Globe's UNITED BY FATE Episode 5, has been blowing up the media and contest circuit lately with multiple covers and podium finishes, including a BEST TRICK performance at the Portland DEW Tour stop. Decenzo's crazy talents can also be seen on www.unitedbyfate.tv.

Hosting the Globe Pro team will be Globe's

European sensations Eero Anttila and Philipp Schuster. Eero, the regular foot ripper from Finland has been a mainstay on the Euro scene for the past few years. You can check out a video of him here.

If you know skateboarders in Europe then you have heard of Austrian Philipp Schuster who in the last few years has torn apart the skate scene by winning the X-Games in China, winning the European Championships in 2007, getting 'Skateboarder of the Year', as well as 'Rookie of the Year' in 2006. A video for Philipp can be seen here.

Together for the EUNITED tour, Globe's international stars will be providing skate fans in Europe a chance to hang, skate and chat with them.
